

PUBLIC NOTICE/DISCLAIMER

The Company has come to its attention that certain messages are being circulated on a several Telegram channels, without any authorization, association, or consent of the Company.

The Company hereby clarifies that it, along with Directors, Promoter is not involved, directly or indirectly, in the creation, circulation, promotion, or endorsement of any such messages.

In view of the above, the Company has lodged a cyber complaint with the appropriate Law Enforcement Agencies against the said Telegram channels and has taken necessary steps to safeguard the interests of the public, investors, and other stakeholders.

The Company strongly advises the public and investors not to rely on or act upon any speculative messages, stock price-related commentary, investment recommendations or unauthorised analyses circulated through such unauthorized channels and to verify information only through the Company's official communications and regulatory filings.

The Company shall not be responsible for any loss or damage arising from reliance on such unauthorized content.